I would like to express the deepest gratitude to my Guide, Dr. Alex Hankey and Co-Guide Dr. H. R. Nāgendra for their guidance and encouragement.

I thank my mother's elder brother, my uncle Vaidya P. Y. Vaidya (Khaḍiwāle) who guided and inspired me in the path of Āyurveda since my childhood and took keen interest in this study.

I thank Jail authorities especially Jail Superintendent Mr MR Patel and Assistant Jail Superintendent Mr Bhadauriyā, Dr Āzād and all other employees of Central Jail Bhopal including prisoners who participated in study.

I thank Dr. Śaileś Mānkar for taking all Āyurveda parameters very carefully and in an organized way. I thank Yogācārya Śri Jaiprakāśji for his support of taking Yoga class regularly; and also Dr Dīpeśwar for help to analysing results using SPSS 20 software; my Uncle Sri Aśok Killedār for translating my ideas into words, and Dr. Pradnyā Karandikar for extending her co-operation.

I thank Sachin Kadam, Sonu Kanarji, Dāmodar Patel, Premnārāya Prajāpati Mrs. Manjulā Upādhyāya, Candrakalā, Hukumsigh, Sudīp, including all 20 employees of 5 Rasāhāra clinics, who helped me through regular supply of Rasāhāra during all three months of treatment. I also thank all my Ph.D. friends who helped me during various phases of my work. I also would like to thank all the participants involved in my research as subjects.

I will be always grateful to my university Swāmi Vivekānanda Yoga Anusandhāna Samsthāna (S-VYASA) for its support in promoting my research career.

I am indebted to my Parents, Mrs. Hemlatā Vartak and Mr. S. S. Vartak my mother-in-law Mrs. Śāntā Dātey and my husband Mr. Sudhir Dātey for their inspiration, love and support.

Finally I thank God for placing me in right environment to execute the work.
