

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my sincere gratitude to my guide Dr NK Manjunath Sharma, Director, Research & International affairs, S-VYASA University, Bengaluru, for his support all through my work and his thoughtful suggestions as and when required.

I am greatly indebted to my co-guide Dr Shivarama Varambally, Additional Professor, Department of Psychiatry, National Institute of Mental Health & Neuro Sciences(NIMHANS), Bengaluru for his easy availability, technical guidance and friendly attitude in helping me through this journey of research work.

My heartfelt thanks to Dr BN Gangadhar, Director, National Institute of Mental Health & Neuro Sciences(NIMHANS), Bengaluru, who has been the incognito pillar for my research career in the field of yoga. Sir, your energy and enthusiasm has always been so infectious and it's always exciting to be a student for you. It's not only learning research from you sir, but a lot more-simplicity, humility, cheerfulness...

My sincere thanks to Dr Urvakhsh Mehta, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychiatry, National Institute of Mental Health & Neuro Sciences(NIMHANS), Bengaluru for his professional guidance in the core area of my research work-social cognition. Sir, you been my strength and support not only in the subject matter of my research but also in expanding my horizon of knowledge beyond my thesis work. It was a great learning with you and would continue to do so in future as well.

I would also like to acknowledge the financial support received from Wellcome Trust DBT India Alliance (IA/E/12/1/500755) under Dr Urvakhsh Mehta, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychiatry, National Institute of Mental Health & Neuro Sciences(NIMHANS), Bengaluru, throughout my research period.

I am grateful to Dr. G Venkata Subramanian, Professor of Psychiatry, National Institute of Mental Health & Neuro Sciences(NIMHANS), Bengaluru for his kind support in designing the fNIRS experiment.

I shall never forget the company of Dr Shalini Naik, Senior Resident, Department of Psychiatry, National Institute of Mental Health & Neuro Sciences(NIMHANS), Bengaluru, for her friendly assistance at every stage of my thesis work. I am greatly indebted to your constant support throughout my thesis work- whether it is patient recruitment or clinical assessment, you were always there, just a call away....

A special thanks to Dr Pooja Moore & Miss.Harleen Chabra for all the assistance with fNIRS experiment throughout my research work

My sincere gratitude to the yoga therapists, especially Mrs. Shubha Bhat at NIMHANS Integrated Centre for Yoga (NICY) and all its staffs for all their timely help as and when required for me.

I would also express my deepest gratitude to Dr Nagaratna, Chief Medical Advisor, Arogyadhama, S-VYASA University, Bengaluru, for all guidance related to yoga module validation at the beginning stage of my thesis work.

Last but not least, I am obliged to my family and the Almighty, who had been with me all the time and made this work possible through my patients...
